

General Manager, Corporate Services

Our client is at the forefront of the global biomedical industry. They are looking for a strategic leader who is able to influence and partner the business to drive it to greater heights.

Responsibilities

- You will head up the corporate services functions of the organization which include Finance, HR, Board Secretariat, Planning, IT, Risk Management, Investment and a key business project.
- You will set leadership for the various Heads of Departments who report into you on their respective area of contribution
- You will work closely with the Board to ensure that investment mandate set by them is met
- You will oversee and drive the development of a key business project, working in close partnership with the various stakeholders, particularly on strategy development, performance management, governance, manpower development and management, financial and resource management, communications and other areas where necessary.

Prerequisites

- Degree / Master in Business Administration degree
- Extensive experience in a senior position managing corporate services functions, preferably in education or healthcare industry
- Able to effectively communicate with and directly influence a broad spectrum of key partners and stakeholders
- Possess strategic and sound budgetary, governance and compliance knowledge

All applications will be treated with the highest level of confidentiality.