

Head of Finance (Singapore)

Our Client is a US based multinational organization with one of the most unprecedented brand presence across the globe. The business is looking for a high caliber, forward thinking Finance professional to lead the Singapore finance team and drive business growth and success.

Responsibilities

- Set leadership for the Finance and Accounting functions for Singapore
- Drive the strategic financial planning including the structuring of the business to ensure optimum tax and operational efficiency
- Oversee the day-to-day financial accounting operations including the P&L, Balance sheet, cashflow actual reporting, forecasting and budget exercises, statutory and management reporting, cashflow (billing / collection / working capital cost control)
- Partner with the various stakeholders within the organization to drive the business and make business decisions
- Ensure compliance with statutory and local tax regulations
- Manage relationships with external and internal auditors, tax advisors, bankers
- Drive business process improvement initiatives
- Advocate continuous improvement culture and be a change agent

Prerequisites

- Degree in accountancy or equivalent with CPA
- Min. 10 years of solid accounting experience
- Min. 2 years having headed a finance function
- Possess strong Technical Accounting knowledge, working Knowledge of Legal, Tax and US GAAP
- Familiar with the regulatory requirements in Singapore
- High energy with the ability to enthuse others
- Strategic and willing to be hands-on
- Meticulous and well organized
- Commercial/entrepreneurial with an ability to innovate and be a change agent
- Conversant in both English and Mandarin
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- Team player with sound leadership quality

All applications will be treated with the highest level of confidentiality.