

Regulatory Affairs Manager (Asia Pacific)

Our client is a global leader in the pharmaceutical and health & nutrition industry. They are one of the largest and most reputable MNCs worldwide. The organization offers good career development and growth opportunities.

Responsibilities

- Responsible for product registration – secure and maintain product marketing authorisation of existing and new products according to business needs. Maintain updated knowledge of national registration processes and requirements to support business strategies.
- Strategise registration approaches, lead and supervise all activities in support of company direction and strategic plan
- Keep abreast of regulatory change and formulate regulatory affairs strategies in order to cope with the dynamics of the regulatory environment and overcome regulatory barriers in Asia Pacific region
- Fully responsible for all product regulatory clearance and registration processes
- Interact with regulatory agencies and trade associations within defined area(s) of responsibility/expertise
- Act as a focal point for regulatory information and consultation
- Forge strong working relationships with cross-functional teams and external customers
- Monitor regulations and recommend compliance actions
- Represent the company in interaction with regulatory agencies, customers and/or trade associations
- Implement regulatory policies
- Provide regulatory guidance to the business

Prerequisites

- Bachelor/Masters of Science in Life Sciences or related field and 5-8 years' experience in regulatory affairs
- The incumbent must possess experience from these industries - Pharmaceutical, Animal Feed, Food Enzymes, Bio-ingredients, Science based ingredients
- Excellent skills in influencing and supporting the business
- Good planning and organizational skills
- Able to excel in a global work environment
- Possess good command of the English language, both written and verbal
- Travel is required for this role

All applications will be treated with the highest level of confidentiality.