

Senior Executive, HR (Industrial Relations)

Our Client is a leading organization in the service sector with established footprint in the region.

Responsibilities:

- Reporting to the Head of HR, you will be responsible for the industrial relations function across the organization
- Look into welfare and disciplinary matters
- Set framework to guide resolution of performance issues
- Forge good relations with the Union
- Depending on the experience of the incumbent, you will be assigned other HR functional roles in line with your competencies

Prerequisites

- Degree with min. 6 years' relevant HR experience with experience in IR
- Good team player, self-motivated and matured
- Possess good interpersonal and communication skills

All applications will be treated with the highest level of confidentiality.