

Total Rewards Manager

Our client is a globally recognized Fortune 100 US Company and their innovative solutions are applied across multiple industries. They have achieved cutting edge breakthroughs within the electronics, science based and healthcare sectors. They are currently searching for a Human Resource Manager to be part of their high achieving team.

Responsibilities:

- Spearhead and drive Compensation & Benefits programs and initiatives
- Lead in the compensation and performance management cycles including salary reviews, performance bonus payments
- Oversee the HR system, benefits and payroll matters
- Manage a team of three HR staff
- Responsible for the continuous review and enhancement of HR processes to ensure effective support of the business

Prerequisites

- Degree with min. 8 years' HR experience with at least 2 years of supervisory experience
- A people motivator
- Team player who works well in a fast-paced environment

All applications will be treated with the highest level of confidentiality.